

One thousand years ago there existed in Spain a civilization known throughout Europe in which Jews, Christians, and Moors lived together peacefully. But from the end of the fourteenth century to the end of the fifteenth, Spain was transformed into a society unified solely by the Catholic faith and the monarchy. In pinpointing the historical events that turned a multicultural state into an intolerant autocracy, Erna Paris compares what happened in medieval Spain to the social upheavals of twentieth-century Europe and our contemporary world.

Praise for From Tolerance to Tyranny, previously published as The End of Days:

“Incandescent ... Paris uses a historian’s pen and journalist’s eye to find nuance and texture ... She brilliantly revives an old story and lets it speak to our time.”

— The Globe and Mail

“... one of the greatest and most thought-provoking histories I have ever read. It ought to be read by every student of modern politics and by everyone who has an interest in the strengths and weaknesses of multiculturalism.”

— R. John Pritchard, Director, Robert M.W. Kempner Collegium, Programmes and Publications on the History and Jurisprudence of International Criminal Law, London

ERNA PARIS is the author of seven acclaimed works of literary non-fiction and the winner of twelve national and international awards for her books, feature writing, and radio documentaries. Her works have been published in fourteen countries and translated into eight languages. Long Shadows: Truth, Lies, and History was chosen as one of “The Hundred Most Important Books Ever Written in Canada” by the Literary Review of Canada. In May 2007, it inspired the Canadian Government to apologize to survivors of the residential schools.

Author’s website: www.ernaparis.com

$24.95

Cover design: angeljohnguerra.com
Author photograph:

Cormorant Books Inc.
cormorantbooks.com

ISBN-13: 978-1-77086-397-2

9 781770 863972

62495

FROM TOLERANCE TO TYRANNY
ERNA PARIS

FROM TOLERANCE TO TYRANNY

A Cautionary Tale from Fifteenth Century
Spain

ERNA PARIS